4 Bedrooms, 4 Bathrooms, 8 Sleeps

One of the most luxurious villas in the Canary Islands. It is located in an exclusive residential area surrounded by a golf course and very close to the beach.

Sleek, serene, sophisticated: no matter which word you choose, all of them suit Villa Azzurro. Its cool white walls, clean lines and contemporary attitude are a beautiful contrast to the blue of the ocean and green of the golf course that surrounds it. But the four-bedrooms villa is more than a picturesque setting; its location close to the beach and Costa Adeje Town puts you at the center of island life.

Enter the gated property via a winding drive, and you'll soon discover that it opens to several levels of sunny terraces facing the hills and Atlantic Ocean. Stretch out on one of the chaise longues, bring your beach read to the terrace lounge area, have a swim in the infinity pool and send the kids to play on the mini soccer field. After a day by the pool or on the beach, set local seafood on the barbecue and sit down around the outdoor dining area. Stay out and have a nightcap from the chill out area, or head inside to catch up via Wi-Fi.

The predominantly white interiors mixed with a balanced use of natural materials give the space a fresh and modern flair, with pops of bold colors injecting lively shots of personality throughout the villa. The natural light flows freely inside the house through wide glass windows and sliding doors, thereby enhancing its breezy and airy feel. Offering views and walk-outs to the outdoors at every level, Villa Azzurro invites you to set back, relax and enjoy.

From the terrace, Villa Azzurro looks a bit like a glass box: minimalist, modern and built to maximize the incredible views. Its open-plan interiors have the same simplicity, but add colorful accents for a hint of playful personality. Enjoy in the sitting area of serene moment on the long white tuxedo sofa. The dining table seats eight guests and there's more seating at the breakfast bar in the fully equipped kitchen.

The generous outdoors living spaces create a seamless connection with the spectacular setting, while providing plenty of room for sunbathing with an abundance of seating and lounging furniture. The infinity swimming pool lures guests into sublime serenity. There are one bedroom on the middle floor of the Villa and three on the upper level.
